

Regional Summary 4.13

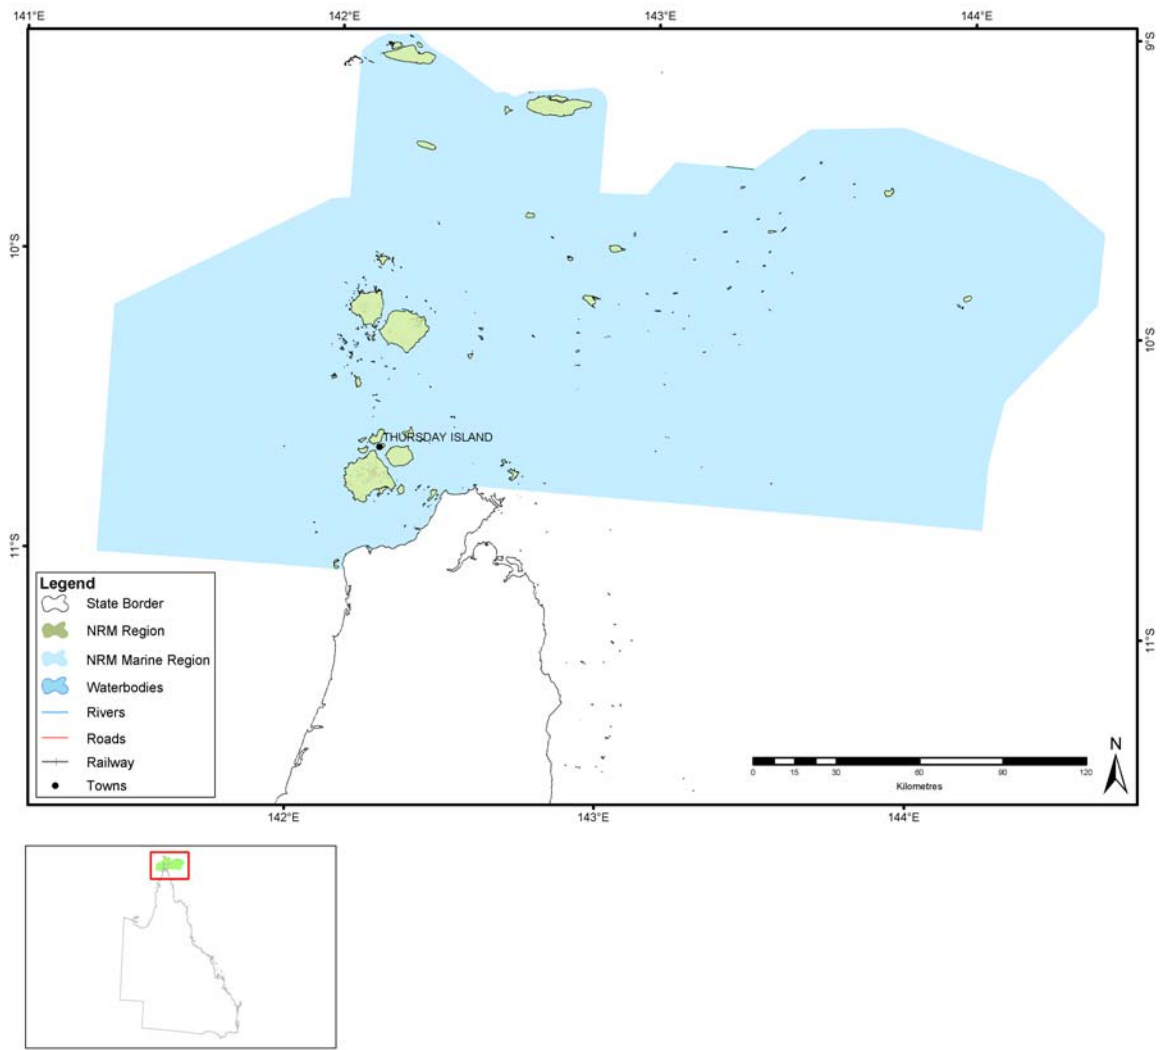

Torres Strait Region

Queensland

This Chapter

Following the breakdown of previous regional arrangements in Torres Strait, the Queensland State and Australian government Ministers have decided to defer the development of a regional natural resource management plan consistent with accreditation standards as required for other natural resource management regions. Instead, focus has been on the identification of strategic priorities and activities. These activities are being developed and are expected to deliver results in 2005-06.

Administrative arrangements

Administrative Body: Torres Strait Natural Resource Management Limited

Trust region: Torres Strait

NAP region: Not Applicable